

Torrance Rose Float Association

June 2019

President's Message

It was exciting to be able to announce the float design contest winner, Eleah Kang, to City Council on May 14th and see the beautiful rendering of our 2020 float. This beautiful float pays tribute to our lovely Wind Chime Garden at the Cultural Arts Center. Now we are looking forward to seeing it become a reality.

I would like to thank Plasma Technology for their continued generosity in donating $1500.00 to sponsor our design contest winner again this year. Plasma has sponsored the contest for four consecutive years, making it possible for our student winner to ride on the float.

Remember you too can ride on our beautiful float by purchasing a ride. There is one seat left at $1500.

Thank you to the City Council for approving the $125,000 in the budget towards our float. I look forward to seeing all of you at our various Restaurants for Roses and the third annual Luau on July 27th.

Don't miss the 2019 TRFA Luau Party on July 27!

By special request, the South Bay Strummers will return! They bring their unique sound of island music as well as some of our old favorites With only UKULELES, they will fill the venue with many well loved melodies!

"Sat July 27, at the TRFA 4th Annual Luau Party"

This year we are happy to introduce the Akua Ohana O Hula group from Gardena Valley Baptist Church. These beautiful dancers will teach us about the natural rhythms of the islands. Enjoy their graceful dance as they sway to the music. You will also have a chance to learn a few steps so you can feel the music in your soul.

Luau Volunteers Welcome
